

The Citizen.

HERE AND THERE.

The Church was the scene of another pretty wedding last Tuesday morning. Miss King was married to Mr. John Farrington, son of the former Cleric of the parish. Dr. Farrington performed the ceremony, and was assisted by Bishop Starkey of Newark, Rev. Mr. C. H. Thompson, rector, and Mr. Becker, vicar of the young people. The feelings predominant, however, were at the hour named few gentlemen and only confirmed by the Freeholders.

Death from a Stray Bullet.

TRAGIC RESULT OF TARGET PRACTICE WITH A PLOTTED RIFLE.

Joseph Donahue, eighteen years of age, whose home was on Willett street, was standing in the yard at his home, conversing with another lad named Calian, who had called him out from the house. While they were talking Donahue suddenly uttered a cry of pain, and putting his hand on his right side, he said that he had been struck with something. It was soon discovered that he had been shot. He was conveyed into the hospital, and medical aid sent for. Doctor White arrived and did all that medical skill could do for the young man.

Three sisters and a cousin attended Miss King as bridesmaids and Miss Agnes Farrington was maid of honor.

The bride's gown was of white silk, lace-trimmed and decorated with pearl embroidery, and the costume was completed by long tulle veil and orange blossoms without which, as custom and fashion decide, a bride would lose her charm.

Miss King wore a pearl necklace with a diamond pendant, gifts of the bridegroom and a bouquet of lilies and lilles de la vallee.

The bridesmaids and maid of honor appeared in gowns of white India silk, lace-trimmed skirts and short puffed sleeves, and wearing white directorioes trimmed with white plumes. They carried large bouquets of pink and yellow roses.

The wedding was followed by a breakfast for the immediate relatives and friends at the bride's home, and afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Farrington left town — we don't know where. It is very sad to have to acknowledge it, but we really don't know and we like to know everything and tell — almost everything. It is a very natural feeling for newly married people to make a great secret of where they're going, and if we aren't, of course we wouldn't want to know, because we don't.

Rev. Sherwood Soule, of Beverly, Mass., for a few days this week the guest of dr. Goodwin.

I see many things on a rainy day is something for which one can scarcely be grateful, and on one of the wettest and sunniest wet mornings lately, a company of people's spirits rose with a early laugh. The rain was pouring down, and a well dressed man came down the street. Silk hat, gloves, pale patent leather shoes — all told that he had carried a large strong umbrella, but carried it tightly tucked and the sheets of rain descended as his unprotected head, as unrelentingly as justice supposed to descend on the sinner. That silk hat would have done credit to Rogue Riderhood, and the patient and expiring on the shoes some hours before.

Then the small boy passed: "Hi, master, don't you put up your umbrella?" and the gentleman replied savagely, "Because my arm aches holding it."

That is what weather is driving us to.

We fortnightly had its usual storm to begin on Friday night at Mrs. Duffield's. It would be homesick by moonlight. The subject to be discussed was "Summer Outings," and the opening paper was read by Mr. Mann. This was followed by eight papers from most of the others present, and severa, told "moral tales" for the occasion by a New York firm. The society was very pretty, and was painted for the occasion by a New York firm. The audience was large and very select, the attendance being by invitation. Montclair society is rejoicing in the fact that they are now independent of neighboring towns for social entertainments of this character. The new Hall meets all requirements. There is no doubt but Bloomfield would greatly profit in more respects than one from a similar enterprise.

Watessing needs an improvement association. Mr. Walter Madison has been proposed for membership in Prospect Hose Company.

Mr. J. W. Butterworth has been drawn on the petty jury.

The Watessing Choral Union met at the residence of Mr. Edward Christopher, on Dodd Street, on Thursday night.

Mr. Edward L. Shepardson has started a milk route.

A meeting was held in Prospect Hall on Thursday night for the purpose of organizing a bowling club.

Contractor Birrell is completing the work unfinished by Contractor Finney on Mr. G. Dodd's property.

The Baptist Society of Watessing will organize a Sunday-School in Prospect Hall, Prospect street, to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 P. M.

There is some talk of Active and Prospect Hose Companies getting up a target shooting Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Pilch returned from their wedding tour last Tuesday.

Fremont Frank Foster and August Bouwens were elected to represent Active Hose Company No. 2, at the meeting of the Firemen's Relief Association in the Trunk House next month.

The new County court over the break at Thornton street is finished. The heavy rain last Saturday tested its capacity. It proved to be sufficient for any emergency in the form of a flood that this locality is ever likely to experience.

Morris Place.

On Thursday, November 17, Miss Mamie Brown entertained about thirty of her young friends at her home on Park street. The occasion was the celebration of her sixteenth birthday, and Miss Mamie received a number of beautiful presents and bouquets of flowers. Every one declared that they had had a "joyful time, and went home well pleased after such a delightful evening."

In connection with this we will mention a Hallowe'en party at the home of Miss Fannie Madison, where the young folks had another good time.

The first meeting of the "N. D. O." was at Mr. S. M. Hinckley's on Tuesday night.

It has that it the Home Culture Society is about to resume its meetings.

Silver Lake S. S.

The teachers of Silver Lake Sunday School gave an entertainment last Friday night, which in every respect was a decided success. The musical and literary programme was unusually fine. "Daddy Hage, Anty Figgin, and Mary's Little Lamb" should set their mark high; for it is certain that they are capable of attaining to great heights. The ladies propose to get up a fair and supper soon, to raise money for the new Chapel. We aid in the building of the new Chapel. We would say, be sure to go, you will get your money's worth.

Mr. G. W. Pancoast is desirous of selling his house on Midland Avenue. It is a very desirable property, and can be had on easy terms. See advertisement.

The Board of Freeholders,

the last regular session of the Essex

Board of Freeholders was held Thursday at 10 a.m. A meeting will be held at the end of the month to close up the Board's business.

The new Board goes into office

December 1st, but will not meet until

as far as the 1st falls on Sunday.

The business of the Board will be transacted at the Pequannock

Chapel.

The new Board will have many questions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law. These are desirable gossip and news.

As far as the existing Board, will likely resign before the new Board

takes possession and ex-Judge Frederick

Stevens is talked of as his successor.

Mr. McCormick is also a candidate.

The election of the members of the Board of Freeholders is to be held on December 1st.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-

tions referred to its counsel as to its powers

under the new law.

The new Board will have many ques-